About Marilyn Sherman

Whether your event is in-person, virtual, or both, Hall of fame speaker Marilyn Sherman knows how to engage an audience large or small. She has spent over 20 years sharing success strategies with audiences motivating them to take charge of their careers and their lives. She inspires people to get out of their comfort zone and live their life in the front-row. With inspiring stories delivered with high-energy and humor, Marilyn offers tools that can be implemented immediately. Her message is filled with hope and inspiration based on her career that started in the finance world in training and development. She left her corporate job to start her own speaking business and has never looked back. She is the author of four motivational books on goal setting, visioning and overcoming obstacles to success. She is so dedicated to the profession of motivational speaking, she moved to Las Vegas with her husband to be the local resource for the many conventions that are held there. She is a 25-year member of the National Speakers Association and is one of only 185 members of the Speaker Hall of Fame. When not speaking, she is heavily involved with Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada, serving up to 600 meals to the homeless population every Saturday for the last 8 years. - Communicating for Results: From Conflict to Cooperation

This is a perfect breakout session to add to a motivational keynote by hall of fame speaker Marilyn Sherman. This is a content-filled program providing tools to anyone who doesn't like conflict or confrontation. Let's face it; no one really likes conflict, which is why so many people avoid it. Or, they act inappropriately because they don't have the tools to navigate conflict. This program teaches people to communicate better to reduce conflict. Plus, she provides tools to handle uncomfortable conversations with grace and respect. Marilyn offers proven communication techniques that can be easily adapted to your work environment. With examples and practice, people will learn the value of being assertive, and not aggressive or passive-aggressive.

This is a great workshop for organizations who wants to reduce conflict, increase communication, or create a better foundation for your company culture. Marilyn will provide communication tools that can be immediately applied at work (and at home) to create or increase harmonious relationships. The tools provided work ESPECIALLY well when dealing with difficult people!

- Front-Row Success: Change your Seat - Change your Life

Reaching goals, achieving peak performance, and managing a successful acquisition are all examples of being in the Front-Row. This dynamic keynote inspires people to go for what they want while letting go of obstacles that have sidelined them in the past. Marilyn knows that reaching new levels of success comes down to:

Seeing the outcome you desire, being Energy-focused on what you can do to reach your goals, having an Attitude of gratitude on what you have achieved so far and the Tenacity to tackle obstacles. That is what she calls the SEAT of success. Everyone deserves a front-row seat in their life and this program helps people get there. No more settling for balcony seats, it's time to move to the front-row.

When you engage in the process of improving yourself and engage more positively with your team, you will start to exceed your previous performance, exceed your customer's expectations, and succeed more than ever before. You will soon evolve into a position to help lead OTHERS to their front-row.

Her clients hire her to deliver an engaging, motivational keynote that gives people practical solutions that audience members can implement immediately. They leave with hope and energy and ideas to have more success in their personal and professional lives. They quickly learn why she is one of only 185 people inducted into the speaker Hall of Fame.
