• Work That Matters

Jeff enables a renewed sense of passion, purpose, and gratitude in attendees' work and lives by challenging the audience to view where they are personally and professionally as a new type of starting point. Attendees walk away more engaged with what they do, and why they do it. Jeff is the quintessential funny keynote speaker for companies who look beyond numbers to the importance of caring for "the whole person."

- The Power of the Pivot

Jeff's journey from juggling in his kitchen as a child to headlining in Vegas with own TV show is naturally inspiring, and his passion is naturally contagious. His story of fighting through the cutthroat politics of the entertainment industry is eye-opening, funny, and powerful. Jeff shared how through a series of strategic "pivots" along his career path, he has continuously leveraged what he has had to flip hardships into assets. Attendees walk away with actionable insights on how and when to apply pivots of attitude, energy, and mindset to their work and personal lives.

Jeff's experience as both a live on-stage presenter and an on-camera host personality makes him the ultimate "double threat" to host your event. Jeff has hosted every type of corporate event there is -- general sessions, awards banquets, game shows -- for dozens of top companies and associations: Disney, OSHA, Verizon, Caterpillar, Grainger, AAA, Honeywell, Culver's, A&W, Rite Aid, Men's Warehouse, Cisco... the list goes on and on! Jeff is equally comfortable in front of the camera, with extensive live and taped TV experience. Corporate events require an Emcee who is confident, polished, and able to adapt to on-site changes. Every event brings challenges, many of which are unavoidable--sessions run long, speakers finish early, tech malfunctions happen... Jeff has established himself as someone who not only makes those situations work, but actually thrives in the last-minute environment of live events. Jeff has 75 minutes of clean, corporate-appropriate material he can draw from to intersperse through a single event, or a multi-day conference to keep your attendees engaged every step of the way.

*Consider having Jeff host your event on-stage, and have him capture moments on-camera during breaks and at social events to create recap and promotional videos. In this way Jeff truly becomes the face of your event / conference and ties everything together.

We are celebrating our 42 year anniversary. We have booked every Past President of the United States, beginning with President Reagan. The first two sports stars we booked were Jackie Robinson and Muhammad Ali. We have booked the top motivational/inspirational speakers worldwide from Dr. Wayne Dyer and Jack Canfield to Bob Proctor and Les Brown. I witnessed Jeff Civillico's blockbuster business presentation at the Stirling Club in Las Vegas this week, and I can emphatically state that Jeff ranks among the premiere presenters I have ever witnessed. He has a gift. He impacts lives. His message is powerful. Bold. Mesmerizing.

— Bruce Merrin, Celebrity Speakers & Entertainment Bureau

When we hired Jeff for our conference in Vegas, it was our first experience with using a professional emcee. Our hope was to help engage our attendees right off the bat, increase the level of professionalism with some of our messaging and, of course, encourage them to have a little fun in the process. He did not disappoint! From the very beginning, he brought our team great ideas and suggestions to enhance the conference experience and went the extra mile to learn the details of our conference ahead of time. Onsite, he was extremely flexible to our ever-changing schedule and was such a pleasure to work with. Our survey results are just starting to roll in, and I'm already seeing positive remarks about Jeff in the comments! I would highly recommend Jeff Civillico for any conference!

— Christy Angle, ISACA, Conference Program Manager

During your performance, our attendees were not only falling off their seats from laughter, but truly captivated by your talents and message. You did magnificent work incorporating our theme "Payroll Rocks the World." Jeff, your originality, charisma, sincerity, polish and performance is a very difficult act to follow. You made an indelible mark on our 35th congress. I'm as honored as I am grateful. Thank you for being an important part of our success in Orlando. Best of luck in all your endeavors. You are multi-mega-talented. I can't wait to see where your talents take you. Certainly I hope to work together again.

— Dan Maddux, American Payroll Association, Executive Director

Jeff is truly an amazing performer who captured the crowd's attention in the very first seconds of entering our stage. His natural wit, phenomenal skills as a juggler and polished professionalism truly added a level of entertainment that our program has not seen in this annual event. The audience loved him from the first moments, and he added an energy to the show that we have not seen in recent years.

— Janice L. Spurlock, Director, Associate Communications, Rite Aid Pharmacies

If someone were to say to me 'hey you're gonna have a juggler come entertain and do a workshop' I would have said 'no way, no how' because my perception is that it's not going to be something that inspires, or ignites fire or excitement. Totally wrong. It was incredible!

– Jeff Rust, Corporate Alliance, Co-Founder & CEO

You were professional and flexible and effortlessly utilized your comedic genius, sarcastic wit, and use of props and impeccable timing to keep the audience in stitches the entire time... More importantly, you achieved our goal, left our members with a smile and set the tone for a truly fun and memorable event. You are a gem and at the top of my recommendation list, but seriously, how will we top you next year?!

– Jodie Brooks Member Services Coordinator, Grain & Feed Association of IL

The audience engagement was hysterical and Jeff's humor made the night shine! We are all still laughing and scratching our heads on how we top that performance for next year's global conference.

– Kristin Hanousek, Senior Director, Meetings & Events, Carlson

Jeff Civillico's workshop was probably one of the best investments our organization has made for itself in a long time. Jeff's energy really brought out the best in my management team. Topping off the engagement with the chance to see him in action in the show, not only gave them a needed reward for the effort they had just exerted, but also provided a great opportunity to see the skills perfected.

– Lawrence Barnard, President/CEO, Dignity Health, San Martin Campus

It is my pleasure to recommend Jeff Civillico to anyone looking for entertainment for their corporate event. Jeff entertained our group at our Corporate Christmas Party and I can assure you everyone in our group had a great time. I received countless comments from our team members about how he was their favorite entertainer we have ever had, and actually had a few that were physically drained from laughing so much during his performance. His show was high energy, family, friendly, and had a great audience participation. I would not hesitate to recommend him personally to anyone looking for entertainment for their corporate event.

– Mark Ridley, President & CEO, Ridley's Family Markets

Jeff Civillico raises the bar as a consummate entertainer and professional master of ceremonies. The Nevada Broadcasters Association puts on a first class Hall of Fame Gala and Jeff's command of the room and ability to captivate our audience of nearly 600 was nothing short of miraculous. He quickly became an expert on the important names and unique terminology for our event which made him even more polished. Jeff is a delight to work with and brings charisma and energy to everything he does. I wholeheartedly recommend Jeff Civillico as an entertainer, a master of ceremonies and as a class-act person.

– Mary Beth Sewald, President, Nevada Broadcasters Association

Recommended by two of our best entertainers ever Mike Rayburn and Jason Hewlett... your combination of raw talent, comedy laced with tons of great improv, and hilarious audience participation brought something we had never experienced before- and people loved it! I believe the laughter is what made your act so memorable amidst 30 others we've chosen over the years.

– Sean Hopkins, Director Global Sales and Marketing, JuicePlus+

Jeff was one of the best stage performances we have had on record – he absolutely nailed it with his comedy routine and surprise elements during our conference at The Aria Resort & Casino.

– Sinan Kanatsiz, Chairman, Internet Marketing Association

We have worked with various different entertainment professionals for our conferences over the past few years and I can say unequivocally that Jeff Civillico is by far one of the absolute best at his trade. Jeff's act from introduction through conclusion is pulse pounding, energetic, engaging, hilarious and centered on providing the most entertaining show one can imagine. Jeff's skills and ability to interact with his audience are next to none. Jeff packages much more than the simple art of juggling into his performance and will keep the audience engaged and laughing during the entire show. His unique style is nothing short of brilliant. In addition to all of what Jeff offers you for a show, you might also appreciate that he works diligently with fellow artists to provide entertainment through his Win-Win Non-Profit Entertainment group for charitable organizations.

Jeff entertained our business owner audience with his humor, juggling, balancing act, and a variety of other great attention getters. That kept the energy up in the room and got everyone's attention which made for a smooth transition to the speakers that followed. Hire Jeff for your next event!
