About Gregory Coleman

Gregory Coleman is the FBI Special Agent responsible for the criminal investigation of Jordan Belfort. Belfort's rise to power and subsequent arrest and conviction were chronicled in the movie, "The Wolf of Wall Street." The movie was directed by Martin Scorsese and starred Leonardo DiCaprio. Mr. Coleman was portrayed by Kyle Chandler.

Mr. Coleman retired from the FBI with over 25 years of experience investigating financial crimes, money laundering, and asset forfeiture. Many of his investigations involved stock market manipulations where the proceeds were laundered through offshore shell corporations and offshore bank accounts. Mr. Coleman was able to obtain banking records from numerous offshore jurisdictions by piercing the veil of secrecy. Coleman Worldwide Advisors provides litigation support, funds recovery assistance, and other financial consultancy services involving financial transactions and systems.

Mr. Coleman is a frequent keynote speaker and guest lecturer and has spoken to audiences in 14 countries.

He has significant experience giving presentations utilizing simultaneous translation.

In this very special podcast, Jordan interviews none other than Agent Coleman, the very same man who busted him and sent him away to camp back in the day, as seen in the blockbuster feature film, The Wolf of Wall Street. Only Agent Coleman is no actor, and the stories he tells are real. These two former adversaries -- turned good friends -- dive right in and discuss how the whole cat and mouse game between them actually went down, how JB avoided prosecution (for a while) and who some of the other players were.
